A BILL

To amend title 10, United States Code, to permit retired servicemembers who have a service-connected disability to receive disability compensation and either retired pay or Combat-Related Special Compensation and to eliminate the phase-in period with respect to such concurrent receipt.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. FINDINGS.

4 Congress finds the following:

1           (1) For more than 100 years before 1999, all
2 disabled military retirees were required to fund their 3 own veterans' disability compensation by forfeiting
4 $1 of earned retired pay for each $1 received in vet-
5 erans' disability compensation.

6           (2) Since 1999, Congress has enacted legisla-
7 tion every year to progressively expand eligibility cri-
8 teria for relief of the retired pay disability offset and 9 further reduce the burden of financial sacrifice on 10 disabled military retirees.

11          (3) Absent adequate funding to eliminate the 12 sacrifice for all disabled retirees, Congress has given 13 initial priority to easing financial inequities for the 14 most severely disabled and for combat-disabled retir-
15 ees.

16          (4) In the interest of maximizing eligibility
17 within cost constraints, Congress effectively has au-
18 thorized full concurrent receipt for all qualifying re-
19 tirees with 100 percent disability ratings and all
20 with combat-related disability ratings, while phasing
21 out the disability offset to retired pay over 10 years
22 for retired members with noncombat-related, service-
23 connected disability ratings of 50 percent to 90 per-24 cent.

1           (5) In pursuing these good-faith efforts, Con-
 2           gress acknowledges the regrettable necessity of cre-
 3           ating new thresholds of eligibility that understand-
 4           ably are disappointing to disabled retirees who fall
 5           short of meeting those new thresholds.

6           (6) Congress is not content with the status quo.

7   SEC. 2. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

8           It is the sense of Congress that military retired pay
 9           earned by service and sacrifice in defending the Nation
 10          should not be reduced because a military retiree is also 11          eligible for veterans' disability compensation awarded for 12          service-connected disability.

13   SEC. 3. ELIGIBILITY FOR PAYMENT OF BOTH RETIRED PAY
 14                           AND VETERANS' DISABILITY COMPENSATION
